SUBJECT: "Pro Se filing 22-CV-9712(RA)(BCM)"

Application granted. In light of the fact that Plaintiff is proceeding pro se, the Court will permit Plaintiff to submit audio and video files of the depositions in support of her opposition to Defendants' motion for summary judgment. If she wishes, Plaintiff may also submit transcripts of the relevant portions of the depositions. See Fed. Rule Civ. P. 32(c) ("Unless the court orders otherwise, a party must provide a transcript of any deposition testimony the party offers, but may provide the court with the testimony in nontranscript form as well."); see also Express Freight Systems Inc. v. YMB Enterprises, Inc., No. 20-cv-186 (ARR) (LB), 2022 WL 2467176, at *7 (E.D.N.Y. Mar. 29, 2022) ("Far from being a blanket requirement that a party relying on deposition testimony at any point in a case must provide a complete transcript to the Court and the opposing party, the Rule [32(c)] requires a written transcript of those portions of a deposition that are offered at trial.").

SO ORDERED.
